STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

I understand the risks involved in playing Irish football, including broken bones, torn ligaments, hematomas, concussions, sprains, contusions, paralysis, dental injury, other unspecified injuries, or even death. I understand that I may incur financial responsibility for medical care and treatment for injuries sustained while participating in Irish football, including ambulance, emergency room, hospitalization, surgical, physical/occupational therapy, durable medical equipment, or other unnamed expenses. I understand I may lose time from work and suffer lost wages as a result of participating in Irish football. I understand these risks and knowingly agree to absolve Erin's Isle Gaelic football club; its officers, members, and sponsors from any liability for any physical, personal, or property loss incurred by my voluntary participation in Irish football (Gaelic football).
