Dear Campers, Sutlers, and Visitors to the Great North American Rendezvous:

Franklin County is proud of its historical importance to the Colonial beginnings of our nation and wishes to invite all of you to the Great North American Rendezvous 18th Century Market Fair to be held at the Fort Loudon Historical Site, Fort Loudon, PA from April 22-25, 2004.

Come and witness the great preservation of this frontier fort site and be part of a gathering of folks who will share their knowledge of our precious historical past. Franklin County contributes part of the Hotel Tax assessed to our visitors with groups who work to preserve our past. The commissioners are proud to have assisted with the fencing and the signage you will see here and we continue to support this and other sites dedicated to connecting our present and future generations with their heritage.

Western Franklin County is very beautiful and we are sure that you will find many hidden treasures in our area that will bring you back here time and time again.

We look forward to meeting some of you in April and welcoming you to our home.

Sincerely yours,

The Franklin County Commissioners
