

Quiz: Lesson 2, quiz 1

Quizzes are designed to give you a chance to test your knowledge.

1. True or False: You can save your Web pages with a .txt extension?

- A. True
- B. False

2. True or False: Text you place within the title elements is displayed in your Web browser's title bar instead of in your page.

- A. True
- B. False

3. Which of the following are kinds of controls you can use in HTML to build your page? (Check all that apply)

- A. attributes
- B. elements
- C. entities
- D. None of the above

4. True or False: All HTML elements have a start and end tag.

- A. True
- B. False

5. Fill in the blanks: Every HTML tag begins with _____ and ends with _____.

- A. less-than sign, greater-than sign
- B. [,]
- C. {,}
- D. (,)

6. Which symbol follows the less-than sign in every closing tag?

- A. |

- B. \
- C. /
- D. -

7. True or False: You can use any case you want when creating HTML elements.

- A. True
- B. False

8. True or False: You can use any attribute with any element.

- A. True
- B. False

9. True or False: Always place attributes within the opening tag of the element that they modify.

- A. True
- B. False

10. True or False: Elements do not need to be completely nested within each other.

- A. True
- B. False