ADDING LINKS

ENDURING QUESTIONS

Question 1

Which of the following are kinds of hyperlinks you can add to your Web pages? (Check all that apply.)

A) ☐ A link to pages on your own site.

B) ☐ A link to pages on other people's sites

C) ☐ A link to a specific spot on the same page

D) ☐ A link to and e-mail address

Question 2

True or False: You can be off a letter or two when you add a URL to an anchor element.

Question 3

True or False: There are utilities and tools that make it easy to maintain the links on your site.

Question 4

True or False: The value of the `href` attribute must be in quotation marks.

Question 5

True or False: When you link to a page on your own site you can just use the page name.

Question 6

Which attribute do you use with the anchor element to mark a spot on a page?

Question 7

Which symbol do you use with the `href` attribute to link to a spot on a page?

Question 8

What text do you include before the e-mail address in the value of `href` to let the browser know you are linking to an e-mail address and not a Web page?