I was dancin' to the band havin' lots of fun
When I looked across the floor and a fight had just begun
And when the fight was over neither one of them had won
But they threw me out on my ear
Some big ugly mother with tattoos on his arms
I tried to tell him that I didn't mean him any harm
I looked up at him I was pouring on the charm
I said honk on Bobo too (chorus)

Well I jumped in the sack with a pertty little girl
She told me she would take me for a trip around the world
When my head hit the pillow the room began to whirl
I spent the night with my head in the can
Now when I came to my watch and wallet they were gone
On the dresser was a note it said, "Thanks a lot John"
And all I could remember were the words to this song
She can honk on Bobo too (chorus)

Late Monday morning I stumbled into work
The boss looked me over like I some kind of jerk
He got high and mighty like I'm a piece of dirt
And that's when the shit hit the fan
I told him where his job and his attitude could go
Were it not for my good nature we mighta come to blows
I haven't got a job and I'm runnin' out of dough
But he can honk on Bobo too (chorus)

I was drivin' down the interstate and thought I'd have a toke
When a trooper pulled me over and I nearly had a stroke
When I wound down the window I said, "Can't you take a joke"
And that's when I landed in jail
Well the very next morning I had to see the judge
I begged the man for mercy till I knew he wouldn't budge
I'm not the kind of fella who would ever hold a grudge
But he can honk on Bobo too (chorus twice) (key change 2nd time)

The people on the left, they can honk on Bobo
The people on the right, you can honk on Bobo
The ones down the middle you can honk on Bobo, before Bobo honks on you
