So you went to Memphis, and you did the things you wanted

G

D

Came up to Winnipeg, and slept out in the zoo

G

D

Took a load to Kansas, and went west to paint the rockies

G

D

When you reached the coast, your friends were waiting there for you

G

D

In and out of a love affair, that left you feeling empty

G

D

Had an urge to call me, but you couldn't beat your pride

G

D

So you caught a bus, and headed back out toward the prairies

G

D

Got off in Moosejaw cause you couldn't quite decide

D

If it was me you were running from or you

A7

D

And were the things that they told you really true

G

D

So you thought you'd venture down, and visit San Francisco

G

D

Drifted with some friends, on a beach near Monterey

D

Back up through the Golden Gate, and into Sasalito

G

D

Vancouver Island must have seemed so far away

G

D

Then you decked yourself out in the latest eastern fashion

G

D

Took a plane to LA and you worked some local bar

G

D

Ended up on board a yacht that docked somewhere near Portland

G

D

Came ashore just long enough to mail me a card

A7

D

Yes and you still haven't found what's really you

A7

D

And I wonder when your running will be through
