

2007 Eagle Pack Wild Dog Derby Race Update

- It is with great pleasure we acknowledge the support of our sponsors, in particular Eagle Pack Dog Food and Jetset Norwood.
- We welcome Anthony Cook as our Race Marshall for this year's race. Anthony has many years experience & has generously donated his time for us.
- Track distances will be confirmed at drivers meeting, (pending Forestry SA instructions).

- Access to the race site is from Cricks Mill Rd.
- Gates will be opened on Friday at approx 8.30am
- Camping is available at the race site.
- Accommodation is available the Chateau Barrosa Motel, Ph: (08) 8524-4268
- There will be a camping fee (imposed by Forestry SA) of $3 per adult and $1 per child per night payable either in advance or on the race weekend. Please note that SA Forestry asks that we keep the number of camp fires to a minimum (i.e. One), so please come and join us around the communal fire.
- Please camp and park only in the designated areas.

- Those people who have overlooked the $4 Forest levy on the entry form, can you please pay on the race weekend
- Toilet facilities are available on-site.
- Wild Dog Pancakes will be available in the morning until racing is completed both days.
- BBQ lunch (free for mushers) will be served each day.
- The Saturday night Gourmet Barbeque will be held on-site from 5:00 pm. BYO drinks and chair!
- Those not attending are welcome to join us after the banquet for our festivities.
- Please note: mobile phone coverage is not always accessible in the forest.
- Merchandise can be ordered at the race.
